

Residential Scholarship

2020–2021 Guidance Notes

Who is the Lee Abbey Residential Scholarship for?

Lee Abbey is able to offer either free or reduced price accommodation to a limited number of students within our accommodation in Lexham Gardens for a period of one academic year, depending on need and availability of funds.

To be considered for a Lee Abbey residential scholarship, you must meet all of the following criteria:

- Be in financial need
- Be studying on a recognised full-time degree or postgraduate level course
- Have a good academic and attendance record
- Have a scholarship/bursary/loan from another institution to cover your tuition fees.
- Have a good behaviour record with Lee Abbey if a current or past resident.

Awards are given for 1 year only. Preference will be given to students from overseas and those who are already resident at Lee Abbey.

Completing your application

Please read each question carefully and make sure you answer it fully. If you do not answer the questions we may contact you for more information and our decision may be delayed.

As part of the application process, you will need to supply:

- A copy of the letter confirming your place on the course for which you will be applying
- An academic reference from a tutor at your current or most recent academic institution
- A copy of any letters awarding scholarships or other financial assistance
- Contact details for your tutor and scholarship administrator
- Details of any other income
- Three months' recent bank statements for all your bank accounts. Please ensure that the documents you provide are photocopies of the originals.

Successful applicants will be expected to play an active role in the life of Lee Abbey, which may include donating your time voluntarily to support the activities of this house.

Please submit your application to Reception, marked for the attention of the Director.

Once we receive your application

Once we receive your application, your situation will be discussed by the Director and at least 2 other members of the Lee Abbey Leadership Team.

If we have questions about your situation, you may be asked to attend an interview to explain your circumstances in more detail.

If your application is successful

If your application for a residential scholarship is successful, you will be notified in writing and by email and your booking will be confirmed by the Accommodation Office.

You may be allocated to any room type at Lee Abbey at the discretion of Lee Abbey Leadership.

As part of the ongoing review of the scholarship programme, we expect to discuss your academic progress towards the end of each term.

Your scholarship may be suspended or cancelled if any of the following come to our attention and are verified:

- non-disclosure of alternative funding,
- poor academic progress,
- persistent non-attendance at classes, or
- any serious behavioural problems at Lee Abbey.
